July, 2006 Newsletter

Our state meeting in October is set for the Holiday Inn Huntsville Downtown. Please visit the web site or this page specifically <http://www.alabamassa.org/oct18-meeting.htm> for full information. Speakers have not been set at this time, but I can assure you it will be as good as the Mobile Meeting. Being in my home town, I'll try to make it even better.

The sample Rental Agreement has been written and is currently in review by Board Members. Those who have read it feel it's one of the best they have ever seen and covers some ground that you may not have even thought of. I expect it to be on the members only web page very soon and I will send you an email when it is there. Thanks to Douglas Fink for his continued work on this project.

The EXPO is also booked for Febuary 22, 2007 at the Wynfrey Hotel. Same place, format and times as last year. Of course, much more will be coming about it in the late fall when plans firm up. Vendors will set up on Wednesday the 21st with a social mixed for members, paid guests and vendors on that evening. The full EXPO and conference will be all day Thursday the 22nd. If you didn't come last year, you owe it to yourself to attend.

Please support your organization and point others to the web site. www.alabamassa.org The membership sign-up form is on the site and we need to get at least 40 more members before October.

Best regards,
M.D. Smith, President
